GENERAL MANAGER

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH ON FRANK LANE

Prior to entering baseball Lane was a sport writer for the Commercial Tribune in Cincinnati, Ohio.

For a period of twelve years, also prior to baseball, Lane was one of the nation's leading football and basketball officials. Most of his work was done in the Big Ten Conference but, of course, he worked other college conferences primarily located in the Middle West.

His first contact with baseball in Kansas City came after the war—he was a Commander in the Navy—when he served as general manager of the Blues.

He has also been president of the American Association.

He has been general manager of the Chicago White Sox —credited with getting that club out of the second division —with the St. Louis Cardinals, and the Cleveland Indians.

Hard worker, intense reader and retainer of baseball journals and sport pages, and a man who has no secrets to be kept from baseball fans. He speaks for the record when he speaks. And, of course, this makes him prime copy and a top favorite with writers all over the nation.

Home is considered to be St. Petersburg, Florida. He has one daughter.

MANAGER

Joe Gordon Number 39

Joseph Lowell Gordon became the Kansas City Athletics fourth manager this past fall, putting to rest all sorts of rumors as to the man who would succeed Bob Elliott. The 45 year old Gordon broke in as a player in 1936 with the New York organization and was a top flight major league second baseman for 11 years. As a manager, the "flash" spent three years in the Pacific Coast League before taking over the helm at Cleveland in 1958. He was involved in the widely publicized Frank Lane-Bill Dewitt manager swap last summer, which sent Jimmy Dykes to the Indians and Gordon to Detroit. Joe, a tremendous hustler and fiery competitor, also is widely renowned for his handling of youngsters. He will get quite a chance to prove this with the Athletics.

The new A's pilot is married to the former Dorothy Irene Crum and they have two children, Judith, 20 and Joseph, 18. The Gordon family resides in Sacramento, Calif.

COACHES

Jo Jo Joyner White — Number 41

A ten year veteran as a major league outfielder, Joyner "Jo Jo" White broke into baseball in 1928 with the Detroit organization. He was a member of the pennant winning Tiger teams in 1934, '35. Jo Jo spent 10 years as a minor league manager at Seattle, San Antonio, Keokuk, Reading and Mobile before coming to Cleveland in 1958 as a coach. Another Californian from Sacramento, White is married and has two children, Tonya Jo, 26 and Mike, 22.

Dario Lodigiani — Number 40

Another Californian joins the A's coaching staff this year in the person of Dario Lodigiani, who for the past two years has been a scout in the Cleveland organization. Lodigiani, a native of San Francisco, was a major league infielder for six years dividing his time with the Philadelphia Athletics and the Chicago White Sox. In 1952, '53 he was manager and general manager at Yakima. From 1955 through 1958, Dario scouted for the White Sox. He is married and has one daughter, Diane Mary, 6.

Ed Fitzgerald — Number 42

A catcher who has spent 13 years in the majors, Fitzgerald is quite likely to see some duty behind the plate with the Athletics. Ed broke into organized baseball in 1946 with the Pittsburgh organization and was one of seven brothers who barnstormed successfully as the Traveling Fitzgerald Basketball team. A fine receiver with a reputation as a clutch hitter, Fitz spent the 1960 season as a coach under Joe Gordon and Jimmy Dykes at Cleveland. Along with Gordon and White, Fitzgerald also lives in Sacramento, California, and is married with five children.
